Robots are capable of performing various complex tasks some of them include assembling cars in factories and helping with medical procedures. In spite of having these advanced functions, they still do not have personalities. However, this could change in the near future . At present, a group of engineers, scientists and psychologists from all over Europe are starting a project to develop robots with personalities. The scientists believe that as robots become more guaranteed and play a greater role in society, they will need to be able to deal with humans. It is planned that robots will be able to help around the house, act as companions, shop on line and help the elderly people interact with everyday problems. There is no aspect of life that robots will not affect. But in order to develop robots with personalities, the scientists must try and copy the facial expressions and gestures which allow humans to communicate and form relationships with one another. It is hoped that this research will provide important information about relationships between humans and robots.

People have been wearing clothes for thousands of years , but we are not absolutely certain why prehistoric man first did so. There must have been various reasons. Clothing was needed for protection from the weather and perhaps from injury while hunting. A less practical reason was for decoration. An early myth suggests that people first covered their bodies for reasons of modesty.

Today, experts say that clothing is a kind of language. We often put on clothes and accessories to show what kind of people we are. From what people wear we can often tell their age, whether they are male or female, where they come from, their religious beliefs, whether they are married, what their jobs are, what sports they do, and how rich or powerful they are.
